Additional Information

Explanation for why data not available: Under the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA), the dataset used in this study cannot be shared publicly because it contains patient-level Protected Health Information/Personally Identifiable Information (PHI/PII) from the Veterans Health Administration. To gain access to this data, interested researchers must complete credentialing to conduct VA research, as well as data use agreements with the Primary Care Analytics Team (pcat@va.gov) and other relevant VHA data owners.
